

E&O's Christmas tree lighting ceremony marks the start of year end festivities.

THE joyous tradition of lighting the Christmas tree at the Eastern & Oriental Hotel (E&O) marks the beginning of the year end festivities in Penang.

The traditional ceremony carried out on the first day in the month of December is an event much-anticipated by guests and regulars in the island. The gathering offers a chance for friends to mingle and make new acquaintances.

E&O group hospitality and lifestyle director Michael Saxon said the traditional lighting of the Christmas tree is a customary practice since the hotel's revamp in 2003.

"Since then, it has been on the social calendar of guests and business partners who look forward to returning to celebrate the festive season with us at E&O," said Saxon.

Promotions for Christmas at the hotel's popular Sarkies eatery offers Christmas Eve dinner from 7pm onwards priced at RM312 (adult) with free flow of wine, beer and fruit punch. On Christmas Day, a buffet luncheon offers favourite dishes of the season at RM196 from 12pm to 2.30pm.

Over at the 1885 fine dining outlet, friends and family can gather for the Christmas Eve gathering from 7pm onwards for a six-course meal.

As for the New Year celebration, join the countdown at 1885 from 7pm onwards for a New Year Eve dinner entertained by a pianist and countdown party.

The Sarkies offers a wine and dine buffet dinner for the occasion starting from 7pm priced at RM348 (adult) with a grand finale of a fireworks display on the stroke of midnight.

On New Year's Day, a hi-tea buffet is also available at the Sarkies from 12pm to 2.30pm.

The Farquhar's Bar is also offering a champagne promotion from 11am to 12 midnight on New Year's Day.
