=Food Hunt= Pastries Parade @ Sarkies Corner of Eastern and Oriental hotel

THURSDAY, AUGUST 27, 2015 GIBSON 吉神 NO COMMENTS

Full price for the freshness, half price to save the earth from food wastage. This is how the Eastern and Oriental hotel serves the best for their guests while being environmental friendly.

Sarkies Corner at the heritage wing of Eastern and Oriental hotel serves fresh pastries daily, so the best time to come is after 11am, when they start to accept orders. RM14 for a piece of cake is more than reasonable by hotel standards. Furthermore, you get a 50% discount after 6pm for the same delicious piece of cake at only RM7. This applies to all the other pastries.

Lavender Opera

If lavender and white chocolate are your favorites, you will not go wrong with this cake, but Gibson found it too sweet for his taste. However, according to his friend the cake with coffee is a good combination.

Chewy Chocolate Brownie

Bittersweet taste and the brownie is a mouthful of chewy walnut.

Chocolate tart

Comes with Macaron, the bitterness of the dark chocolate is too overwhelming for Gibson, but for those who love dark chocolate, this is a sure thing.
