Featuring all sorts of seafood, meats, vegetables and more, the traditional "Ooi Lor" is gonna be different from your ordinary steamboat this year. The experience of having steamboat in a 5-star hotel surely gives you and your family an unforgettable experience.

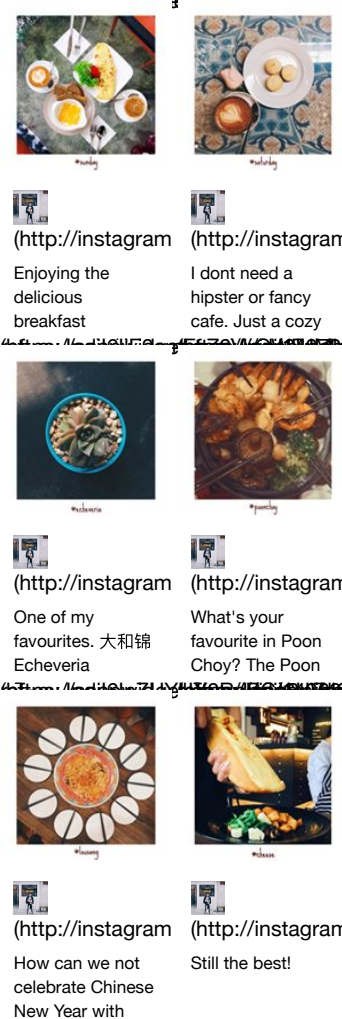

Yee Sang will also be served to all the customers, especially if you book a table with minimum of 6pax in a table. The Yee Sang comes with fresh salmon slices and it tasted rather refreshing and even better with the "Pok Chui" that added some crunchiness in this dish.

Part of the menu: Assorted vegetables, mushrooms and many more. How can we not add those vegetables in our steamboat? If you are not a meat lover, you would love the vegetable selections available on the spread.

In Eastern & Oriental Hotel, you are not gonna expect the usual meatballs and fishballs kind of food. What they are serving are mostly fresh and real ingredients other than those processed food. What we can find are ingredients like fish maws, tofu, all sorts of seafood and many more.

They also serve the traditional dessert like rice ball in ginger soup.
It would be best to have some of these chewy rice ball that filled with black sesame and finish it with ginger soup after a sumptuous meal. Simply hearty and great.
