'Eat All You Can' CNY Steamboat Buffet Dinner @ Eastern & Oriental Hotel Penang

Food, Penang, Malaysia

GONG HEI FATT CHOY!! It's the auspicious time of the year again when you gather with your family and eat up a storm!

Steamboat is the norm of most Chinese when it comes to reunion dinner or gathering meals. However, it might take up some time or effort to prepare for the meal so why not consider having a steamboat buffet at E&O this year when you can eat all you can with a choice of your favourite soup base?

Priced at MYR 108 nett per adult and MYR 54 nett per child, there are 3 choices of broth - Chicken, Tom Yam and Herbal for the steamboat. There is a wide array of food as well; seafood lovers would be excited with their big prawns, fish maw, sea cucumber, flower crab, bamboo mussels and more! There is a variety of meat, mushrooms and vegetables as well. All these are complimented by their homemade dip sauce and I particularly favour the coriander oyster garlic sauce and special chilli sauce.

Oh, and did I mention there is a complimentary Yee Sang Platter for each table that comes with the steamboat buffet dinner package as well?

We started off with the chicken broth steamboat. The soup was flavourful and sweet and the taste got more intense towards the end after all the ingredients were mixed in.

For those who prefer hot and sour, opt for the tom yam soup. Its flavour gives a good kick to the taste bud. I always love to have a bowl of noodles and egg in tom yam soup to end my hearty steamboat meal.

An assortment of dessert and sweets are waiting on the buffet line to give an end note to the scrumptious meal. Other than people's favourite Chinese New Year cookies, there are cakes, pudding, fruits, pastries and my favourite black sesame glutinous rice ball in ginger soup.

This CNY steamboat is available from 27th to 31st January 2017, from 7pm till 10.30pm at Sarkies Corner. Make sure to book soon if you are interested as there are limited seats available with a maximum capacity of 80 pax only.
