

East meets West in vibrant feast

Sarkies Corner of E&O Hotel will also offer Christmas treats next month

THE cosy Sarkies Corner of Eastern and Oriental (E&O) Hotel in Penang exudes colonial charm with its mosaic tiles, hardwood tables, chandeliers and French windows.

It is fitting then that its vibrant a la carte menu brings together the East and West.

For starters, try the timeless E&O Caesar Salad or spice things up with the Thai Seafood Bisque that has mussels, scallops and prawns.

If a sandwich is what you are after, the Salmon Bun should be your pick. It has slices of the fish lathered with saffron dressing between prawn-scented buns.

Pasta lovers will love the Squid Ink Tagliolini tossed with assorted seafood, plum tomato compote and shellfish oil.

The Agnolotti All'Aragosta (lobster ravioli in parsley cream broth) is a richer alternative.

The tasty Chicken Piccata is a crowd favourite alongside Malaysian offerings like Chicken Curry Kapitan, Beef Rendang or the signature E&O Roasted Duck Rice.

Equally mouthwatering are the Nasi Goreng Istimewa, Mamak Style Noodles, Nasi Lemak, Asam Laksa or Penang Prawn Mee.

Ginger Creme Brulee and Cendol Cake are the recommended desserts. Or peek into the display chiller to see what specialty cakes are available.
