

EASTERN & ORIENTAL HOTEL

Eastern & Oriental Hotel was my gorgeous accommodation for my short, impromptu stay in Georgetown in Penang. It was beautiful, classic and all things nice.

Perched by the waterfront, it was only a little walk away from the city center. And still, you could always hail cabs from right there. Or walk less than 10 minutes to CAT buses that shuttle around Georgetown.

Great rooms, size and looks wise. Lavish bath, Victorian bathtubs, a pretty little location, nice patios for lunches and brunches overlooking the beautiful blue water.

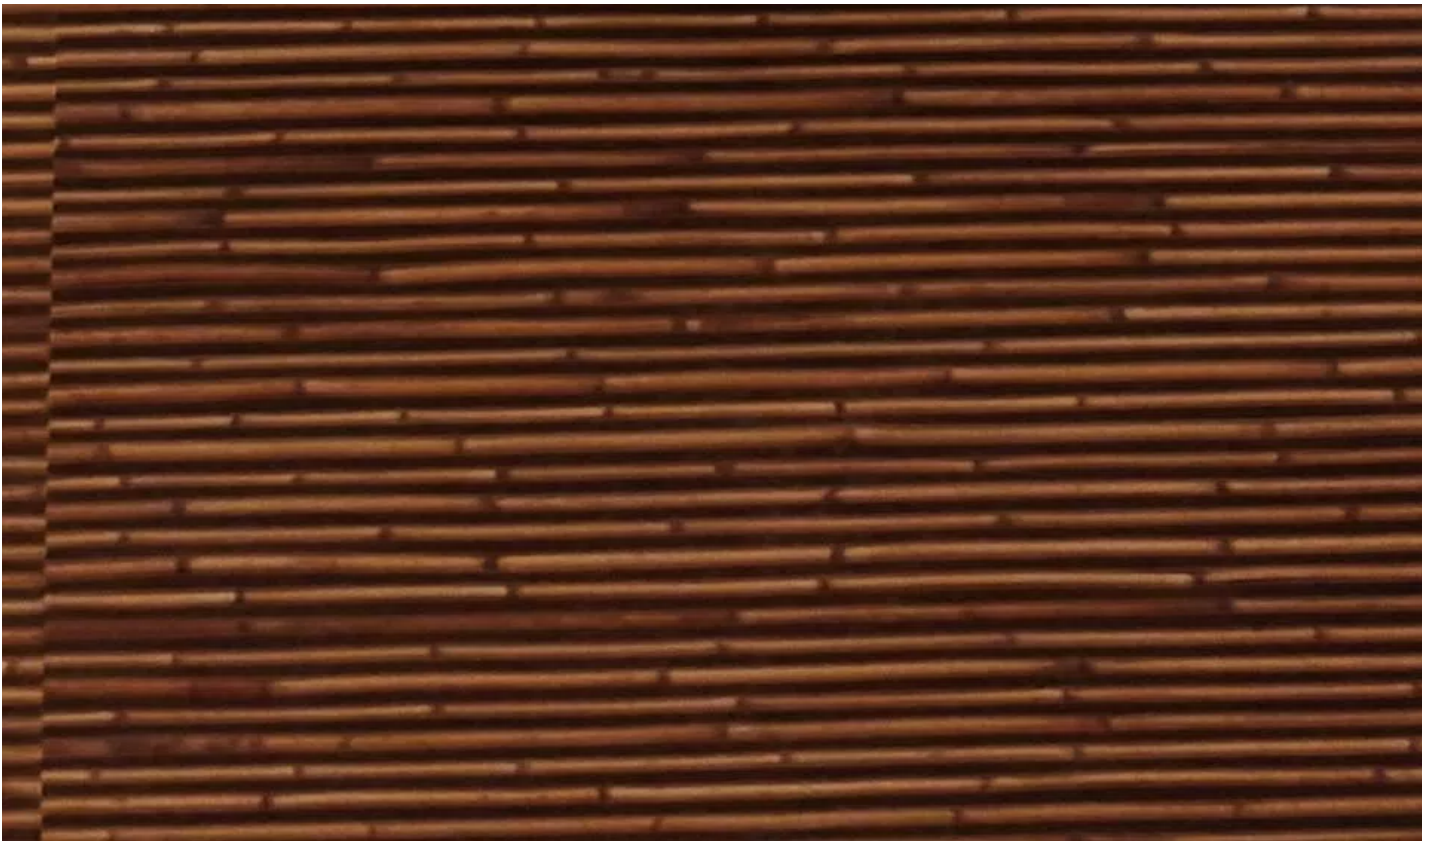

Huge breakfast spreads from a plethora of breads to curries and rice, and with wine for them, those could well be brunches. Teas, coffees, juices, fruits, you'd be spoiled for them.

Friendly staff. A spa that I didn't avail of. A lounge that had a happy hour at 5 PM. Swimming pools. Plenty of garden space. Beautiful halls, hallways and lobbies. I explored their entire facilities fully. But here's some of what I did.

More details of the food and drinks to follow soon.
