Feast to your heart's content on succulent Roast Side of Beef (right) or Slow-Cooked Lamb Shoulder (left) at the Sunday Roast.

THE hearty Sunday Roast of Eastern and Oriental (E&O) Hotel in Penang is the perfect treat at the end of a long week.

Feast to your appetite's content on the mini buffet of succulent barbecued meats, vegetable accompaniments and more.

Served at Farquhar's Bar from noon to 4pm every Sunday, it is priced at a value for money RM71.50nett per person.

Have the chefs carve up prime cuts like Roast Side of Beef. A blushy pink in the centre and nicely charred on the skin, it is a meat lover's delight.

Dollop on some pungent mustard or horseradish, and feel the whirl of flavours in your mouth. What's for certain, is going back for repeat helpings.

Equally tasty is the Slow-Cooked Lamb Shoulder, marinated with a house rub then gently roasted so that the meat retains its juiciness. Mint sauce is the ideal partner.

Have the cocktail of the month Tequilizer (right) to go with your meaty indulgence this July.

There is also Roast Chicken Breast with sage and onion stuffing that just beckons to be lathered in luscious shallot gravy.

No Sunday Roast — a staple of British culture — would be complete without Yorkshire Pudding. Here, a pile of them just wait to be devoured.

Complementing the hero items are side dishes such as Goose-fat Roasted Potatoes, Seasonal Vegetables and Mushy Green Peas.

Making it a complete meal is soup of the day, homemade bread, fresh cut fruits and a dessert such as Bread and Butter Pudding.

For beverages, the bar offers a comprehensive line up of tittle from wines to beers and spirits — to strike every fancy.

Otherwise, try the specialty Cocktail of the Month. July serves up Tequilizer, a pleasing mix of Jose Cuervo tequila with grenadine and 100 Plus.

August brings about the Banana Daiquiri, a distinctly tropical flavoured concoction of Bacardi Blanc rum, coconut milk, coconut Monin and bananas.

Farquhar's Bar also has Happy Hours from 3pm to 7pm on Monday to Saturday, and noon to 7pm on Sundays. Enjoy 50% off selected beverages.

The classic, British-styled bar is open from 11am to midnight daily. For inquiries or reservations, call 04-2222000 ext 3177.
