E & O Hotel's well-loved Sarkies Restaurant is featuring popular traditional Malay fare for its Jamuan Berbuka Puasa buffet, in addition to its intercontinental offering of Japanese and Italian favorites. This year, the entrance of Sarkies Restaurant has been decorated with attap dwelling for a traditional Malay feel.

The decoration throughout Sarkies creates the “Balik Kampung” festive mood.

After a long day of fasting, you can break your fast at the ulam corner where an assortment of local greens such as selom, ulam gajus, bendi, kacang botol and more await to give you a salubrious start to your meal. The perennial Malay salad, ulam, to be complemented with different types of sambal and sauces, is the perfect starter to a sumptuous meal for breaking fast.

Savour the flavorful goodness of traditional must-haves like briyani rice, rendang daging, ayam masak madu and gulai ketam kampung, prepared by seasoned chefs who tapped in their own soul-soothing family recipes, passed down through generations.

Top off the break-fast meal with an enticing assortment of Malay kuih muih and bubur kacang hijau as well as a variety of cakes and pastries.

Diners can also indulge in the slow-roasted whole lamb at the outdoor stall section along with local staples such as satay, Penang Asam Laksa, curry ikan, teh-tarik just to name a few.

For action corner, there are the usual koay teow soup, curry noodle and also fried koay teow. For those looking for roast and pan-fried action grill, the pan-fried salmon, roast ducks, chicken, beef and lamb are also available at this corner.

Sarkies Restaurant buffet with its array of kampung dishes would be perfect for hotel guests, especially foreigners, to sample a taste of Malaysia's rich culture. At the same time the hotel guests not only learn about the dishes but the significance of buka puasa. After all, the best way to learn about a culture is to explore its culinary expressions.
