

Chance to live it up at E&O

FANCY a stylish staycation at Eastern & Oriental (E&O) Berhad's properties in Penang and Kuala Lumpur, or perhaps a sumptuous feast?

Sign up for Penang Starwalk 2019 and you stand to win vouchers for that in the event's lucky draws.

The company has sponsored goodies worth RM11,886 – including a two-night stay in a two-bedroom suite at E&O Residences in Kuala Lumpur for one winner.

“ This is our opportunity to contribute to an iconic Penang event and we wish Starwalkers all the best.

Two other winners will each walk away with a two-night getaway in a Victory Annexe Studio Suite of the timeless E&O Hotel in Penang.

Also up for grabs are five sets of buffet lunches for two and five sets of buffet dinners for two at the latter's popular Sarkies restaurant.

E&O Berhad group corporate strategy director Lyn Chai said the company had been proud sponsors of Penang Starwalk since 2015.

“We are pleased to contribute hotel stays and dining vouchers at our treasured heritage landmark, the E&O Hotel in Penang, as well as a stay at the E&O Residences in the heart of Kuala Lumpur.

Starwalkers all the best,” Chai said.

She added that E&O Sports Club would be sending a team of 25 to join the walk, which is now part of their official activity calendar after good response in previous years.

Chai was joined by E&O group strategy and communications assistant general manager Ann Tan and E&O Hotel general manager Alison Fraser in presenting the vouchers to Star Media Group client brand marketing general manager Simone Liong.

Fraser said the hotel's Heritage Wing, which is currently undergoing refurbishment works, is set to reopen in December, in time for Christmas.

“Guests will find a heightened sense of luxury and comfort with the new decor, upgraded amenities and better services. We've made better use of existing spaces and beautified the place.

“But it will remain sympathetic to the heritage style of the hotel,” Fraser said, adding that the Grand Ballroom will reopen first by the end of September.

Walk-in registration for Starwalk can be done at The Star Pitt St in Jalan Masjid Kapitan Keling or Star Northern Hub in Bayan Lepas, from 9am to 5pm on weekdays. Online registration can be done at <http://sites.thestar.com.my/starwalk/>.
