

E&O Hotel Heritage Wing Re-Opening and Christmas Tree Lighting.

on December 18, 2019

There's just so much to love about the brand new gorgeous looking interior of the Heritage Wing of Eastern and Oriental Hotel Penang. The place underwent an extensive refurbishment which was carried out since March earlier this year and the much anticipated re-opening showcased the stunning beauty of the place with much elegance and luxuriousness of hospitality.

Despite its major refurbishment works, the hotel has also maintained its historical grandeur elements among them is the echo dome which has certainly become part of the hotel's identity.

We were privileged to be among the invited guests who had the chance to explore the stunning beauty of the place as well as the brand new additions to the hotel.

Grand Ballroom

Such an impressive stunning beauty. The Grand Ballroom is sure one of its kind with the Victorian touches that is has along with the soft pastel blue and gold colour. Perfect for grand occasions and celebratory events.

Farquhar's Bar

Nothing like enjoying those bar staples and classic cocktails with a magnificent view of the island's waterfront, all set in a classic vintage setting.

as casual Western staples in a casual classy nostalgic ambiance.

Lobby Area

A timeless sight of magnificent.

Newly Refurbished Suites

← A touch of luxury and comfort. The suites are now adapted with a
