We love the remodelled Farquhar's Bar in the E&O Hotel Penang. There's such a sense of old-world charm and luxury here. Plush leather sofas, panelled walls, chandeliers and gilded framed pictures on the walls and a fully-stocked bar in the centre... everything oozes understated classiness.

JAVA TREE

JAVA TREE

Just a few steps beyond Farquhar's Bar is the E&O's fine-dining restaurant, Java Tree. Java Tree stands out with its assortment of Straits Nyonya recipes and classic European dishes.

Java Tree holds a special significance as its namesake is one of the key historical elements located at the garden area of the hotel's promenade – the oldest living species of the Java Tree on the island.

The tree was planted before the establishment of the hotel in 1885 and has since become an important part of the E&O.

We tried dishes from both of Java Tree's Nyonya and Western set menus. The Nyonya Set starts off with signature appetisers such as Blackened Top Hats (Pie Tee), Lobak, Terung Tempura and Otak-otak.

To whet the appetite further, the savoury tangy Itik Tim did a good job with the umami duck broth and pickled mustard greens (“kiam chye”).

Blackened Top Hats

Blackened Top Hats – jicama, carrots, cuttlefish, shredded omelette in homemade top hats

Terung Tempura – grilled eggplant in lime, soy sauce & chilli

Chicken Lobak

Lobak – chicken, shrimp, carrots, yam rolled in beancurd skin

Otak-otak

Otak Otak – local mackerel in coconut cream, turmeric, kaffir lime

Itik Tim

Itik Tim – duck broth, pickled mustard greens

Dessert: Sago Gula Melaka

For our mains, we had Pineapple Prawns Curry and Oxtail Gulai, both of which had us piling on the rice – the curries were really good, aromatic with all the spices used.

Pineapple Prawns Curry

Pineapple Prawns Curry – deep-sea tiger prawns, pineapple

Oxtail Gulai

Oxtail Gulai – slow cooked boneless ox tail in tumeric, lemongrass and tamarind

Not to be outdone, Java Tree's western offerings did not disappoint. We started off with a fragrant soup, Crab Bisque and followed with succulent Grilled Asparagus topped with poached egg and Hollandaise sauce.

Our mains were Salted Cod Fillet and a 10oz Steak both of which were executed perfectly. Our requested “medium” done-ness for the steak came spot-on, served with a generous portion of steak fries and bowl of crisp salad.

Salted Cod Fillet – poached in milk, whole grain mustard mash, baby spinach, poached egg & hollandaise sauce

You must save lots of room for desserts at Java Tree! There's a huge selection of desserts at the sweets cart & chiller and trust me when I tell you that you'll have a tough time choosing. There's just so much and everything looked insanely tempting!

Temptations!

Presently, Java Tree is open for dine-in from 6.30pm to 10pm. For reservations, please call 016-419 8923 or click: <http://bit.ly/JavaTree>
