The first impression I had upon a glance at the menu was - Chilled Seafood Platter and Sashimi Sushi Platter are the must have! Indeed, it was exciting to have the seafood platter with freshly shucked local oysters, Alaskan crab legs, slipper lobster, crayfish, scallops, prawns, green and black mussels. In case you feel like having a seafood fiesta, there are more seafood selections such as salmon fillet, seabass fillet, steamed snapper, steamed seabass, saba fish, wok fried chili crabs, wok fried tiger prawns and more.

One of the popular dish in the menu ought to be the Hainanese Chicken Rice, a locals' favourite dish. Other local dishes making to the menu including a wok fried Char Koay Teow with generous serving of prawns, Hokkien prawn noodles, Assam Laksa, Nyonya Curry Noodle, Mee Goreng Mamak and more.

Also spotted on the menu list including Malaysians' favourites such as Satay, Kari Kambing, Thai Seafood Curry, deep fried fish Szechuan style and many popular dishes. I am surprised the carvery section also in full action, churning oven baked marinated rib eye beef, roasted boneless lamb leg, salmon en crouete and chicken roulade.

Usual dishes in buffet are on the menu as well, including a variety of salads, soups (must try the signature E&O mushroom chowder and seafood bisque), cheese platters, an array of desserts, fruit platters and ice creams. Overall, the unlimited ala carte seafood galore buffet dinner at Eastern & Oriental Penang is definitely a place any of us would like to return for a delightful dining experience.
