Personally, we can feel the fineness showcased by the chefs in the delicate thin skin of the dim sum that able to hold the fresh prawns being used. On top of that, the dim sum is brimming with its natural flavour such as prawns or freshness of the fish itself. Thus it is a true indulgence having these little snacks.

A plethora of goodies are being offered in the menu. Among those we enjoyed are seafood selections that include prawns, crayfish, crabs and mussels, Japanese sushi and sashimi and variety of local dishes ranging from rojak to Penangites' favourite Char Koay Teow or Hokkien prawn noodles. If you are adventurous, do try on the popular Salmon fish curry head that best go with some breads or Nasi Tomato. Do not miss out the signature E&O roasted duck too.

The unlimited ala carte menu also boasts of various meat cuts such as beef striploin, roasted boneless lamb leg and chicken roulade. Check out our personal recommendation Thai coconut chicken soup that offers a peculiar yet interesting flavour.
