Thanks to Eastern and Oriental Hotel Penang for extending the invitation

For starters, treat yourself with either traditional Malay greens that includes Ulam-ulaman, Gado-gado, Kerabu, Thai Glass Noodles, Tempeh, Sotong Kangkung or Western salad such as romaine lettuce, baby spinach, beetroot and more. Cheese counter are setup right beside the salad counter as well.

Fresh and chilled seafood such as oysters, spanner crabs, slipper lobsters, crayfish, scallops, green mussels, black mussels and prawns are available too.

I definitely had a wonderful time starting the night by enjoying some freshly sliced salmon and tuna from the chef on the spot.

My Japanese cravings were immediately triggered upon savouring the sashimi and I am glad Kampung Night Ramadhan buffet also churn out a selection of sushi such as Uramaki, Nigiri, Futomaki, Gunkan and Inari.

The hot entree counter at Kampung Night Ramadhan buffet is robust with activities as diners come and dig into the delicacies here. Among the worthy mentioned including beef rendang tok, Oxtail masak merah, kurma kambing berkentang, seafood otak-otak, crabs with yellow curry sauce, wok fried kam heonh half shell mussel, butter golden nestrum prawns and many more.

Choose either steamed jasmine rice or biryani rice to go along with the dishes.

On top of that, two of E&O Signature - salmon fish head curry in claypot and roasted duck served with hoi sin sauce also make a comeback in this Ramadhan buffet.

To heighten the atmosphere of Ramadhan, the talented culinary team also prepared a big bowl of Sotong Buncit in Chef Special Sambal. This dish turned out to be one of the favourite by the diners during the night.

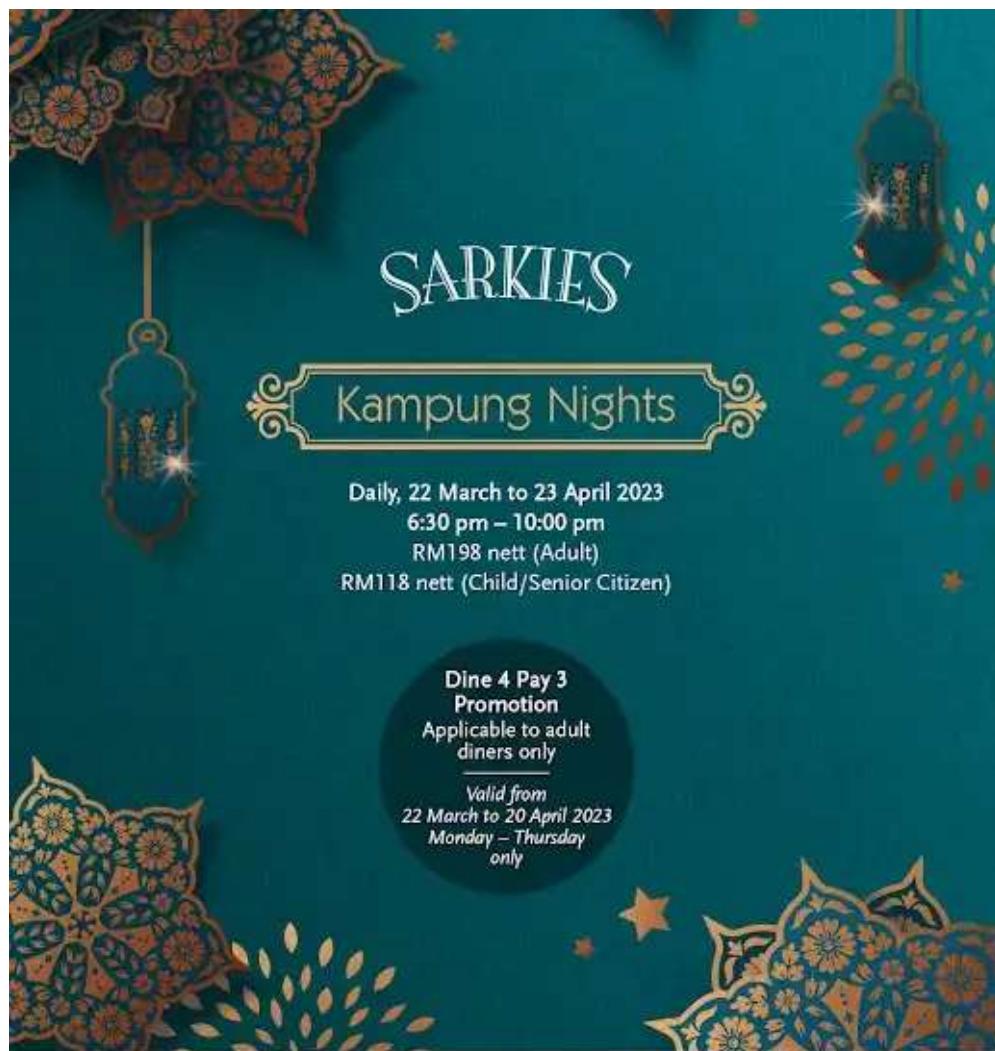

The hotel culinary team also churn out a selections of cravery dishes, such as oven baked rib eye beef with air assam, roasted boneless lamb leg with mint chutney and cucumber raita and butterfly percik chicken.

Besides, the live grilling action counter also non stop serving salmon fillet, seabass filet, tiger prawns, lamb chops and marianted beef to satiate your appetite.

Alto Shaam oven in the hotel also churn out some all-time favourites including caramelized chilli crispy baby crabs, squid tempura, bergedil with sambal kicap, burung puyu goreng berempah and many more for your dinner.

Of course, Ramadhan all-time favourite roasted lamb and satay are available in the al-fresco area of the restaurant.

Besides, there will be a wide selection of local and international desserts to end your dinner here.
